

2011 Seabourn Sojourn World Cruise

Announcing Increased Shipboard Credit • $2,500 per Guest

It's the ultimate voyage – a world cruise to 5 continents aboard the world's most intimate new yacht. Seabourn Sojourn outdoes much larger ships in every conceivable way from virtually 1:1 guest-to-staff ratio to the destinations she'll visit, some accessible only by yacht. It's quite simply the most extraordinary World Cruise experience available aboard the World's Best Small-Ship Cruise Line.

To make these voyages even more enticing, Seabourn is increasing the shipboard credit from $1,000 to $2,500 per guest for all 99-day and 111-day World Cruise reservations made by June 30, 2010.

All fares are in U.S. dollars, cruise only, per guest, double occupancy, and subject to availability. Seabourn reserves the right to manage World Cruise segment inventory and availability at its discretion. Government fees and taxes of $1,207.46 to $1,336.81 per person are not included. Savings vary by sailing date, are capacity controlled, and are subject to change without notice. For guests sailing 99-111 days: Shipboard Credit (SBC) of $1,000 per person ($2,000 per suite) and additional $1,500 per person ($3,000 per suite) available if booked by June 30, 2010. Shipboard credits are neither transferable nor redeemable for cash, have no residual value, cannot be used for casino charges, and are not combinable with any other shipboard credits. First class round-trip transportation from select North American gateways is available at $4,000 per person. Guests are responsible for all applicable air taxes and fees ranging from $30 to $700 per person. Complimentary round-trip private car transfers are available between home and airport, airport and hotel, and hotel and yacht to guests who purchase the World Cruise Air Program. Round-trip transfers between home and airport are limited to 100 miles. Complimentary luggage service of up to 150 lbs. per guest (300 lbs. per suite) is included. Seabourn reserves the right to charge a fuel supplement for all guests, without prior notice, if the NYMEX oil price exceeds $70.00 per barrel, and may collect such a supplement even if the cruise fare has been paid in full.
